Dear Parents/Carers,

On Wednesday 12th July, the Year 2 children will be taking part in a Great Fire of London workshop. To add to the authenticity of the activity the children have the opportunity to come to school dressed up. We do not want you to go to any expense and therefore suggest the following:

Boys: A white shirt, a belt or cord around the waist, a plain waistcoat if you have one but it is not essential and plain, dark trousers (such as tracksuit bottoms) tucked into long socks.

Girls: A plain white shirt/blouse, a long skirt (this could be an adult's skirt pinned to fit), a white apron (a rectangle of white fabric, such as pillow case, could be used), a belt or cord around the waist and a triangle of white fabric to cover hair (the long ends of the triangle are tied over the hanging point and then tucked into a knot).

Please do not feel the need to go out and buy a costume as the dressing up part is just for fun.

The workshop will last all day and involve many different activities that will bring the past to life. It will be a fantastic learning opportunity and wonderful experience for all the children. It will also build on the knowledge the children will have gained in topic work prior to the workshop.

We are always grateful of volunteers to help us on workshop days. If you would like to join in and support us for the day, please speak to your child's class teacher.

Best wishes,

Miss Hill, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Trott and Mrs. Henry
