1: Vision and Values

Our equality vision and the values that underpin school life

Our school is committed to equality for pupils, parents and carers, staff and all stakeholders:

- We strive to ensure that everyone in the school community is treated fairly, respectfully and has dignity in the school environment.
- We work hard to ensure that our school is a safe, secure and stimulating place for the entire school community. We eliminate inequality in our school through inclusive teaching and a creative curriculum that allows staff to encourage pupils to develop positive relationships with their peers. Staff support children in dealing with friendship problems that occur from time to time in a positive and reflective manner.
- We recognise that people have different needs and understand that treating people equally does not always involve treating them all the same. We understand that some pupils need extra support to help them achieve their full potential.
- We make sure that people from different groups are consulted and involved in making important decisions, for example by talking to the School Council, PTA, parents and carers and governors.
- We aim to make sure that no one experiences discrimination because of his or her disability, ethnicity, colour, gender or religion. We foster good relationships with pupils, parents and carers and members of the local community. Staff develop good working relationships with parents and carers to support them in taking an active role in continuing their child's learning at home. We recognise that some parents may require more support than others and so work with them to provide support that meets the needs of the family. This may be for example; through providing the opportunity to access the internet in school, through reading together any letters or information sent home with the parent, accessing or sign posting external sources of support on behalf of parents.
We visit local places of worship from a variety of faiths and invite members of faith communities into school to share with the children at an age-appropriate level. We are developing the use of 'Jigsaw,' a PSHCE, whole school approach that supports the children with relationships, health, and well-being. We are working closely with Giles Junior School to foster links between the schools which in turn supports the children in their transition to key stage 2.

2. The Aims of the School:

- To create a rich and stimulating environment which will enable learning to be an experience that is both enjoyable as well as instructive.
- To provide all children with the opportunity to grow cognitively, creatively, emotionally, socially and physically to their full potential.
- To enable all children to acquire skills and knowledge relevant to life in a fast changing world.
- To increase progress of pupils through implementation of monitoring and intervention strategies. To continue to address gender gaps in literacy and numeracy by monitoring progress and targeted interventions. To refine targeting of underachieving and disadvantaged and vulnerable groups so that they are able to make accelerated progress.
- To provide an atmosphere of care, co-operation and mutual respect where each child and each adult feels well-valued.
- To provide equal curricular opportunities for both girls and boys.
- To encourage a spirit of real co-operation between home and school.
- To educate children towards an understanding and tolerance of other races, religion and ways of life and to instil respect for religious and moral values.
- To help pupils to appreciate human achievements and aspirations.

In fulfilling the legal obligations in Section 3, we are guided by the following principles:

Principle 1: All learners are of equal value

Principle 2: We recognise and respect difference

Principle 3: We foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging

Principle 4: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development

Principle 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist

Principle 6: We consult and involve widely

Principle 7: Society as a whole should benefit

Principle 8: We base our practices on sound evidence

2: School Context

The characteristics of our school

A brief description of our school and its community setting

The Giles Nursery and Infants' School is a Local Authority maintained mixed gender, 3 form entry, community school with 319 pupils including 64 pupils in our Nursery Unit and 2 pupils in our Speech and Language Base.

The school, which is situated in the northern area of Stevenage, was opened in September 1971. It was expanded in 2014 and became a full 3 form entry school in September 2016. The local area includes both council and private dwellings.

The Giles Nursery and Infants' School is similar in size to many others containing primary-aged pupils. The large majority of pupils are from White British families. Those from minority ethnic backgrounds represent a wide range of groups. The school accommodates a specially resourced provision for special educational needs, which is managed by the school. This base caters for up to 10 pupils with speech, language and communication needs. The percentage of pupils with an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP) is well above average and includes all pupils attending the base. The school has National Healthy School's status and the Woodland Trust, Gold Green Tree Award

3: Legal Background

The duties that underpin our scheme

Our school is committed to meeting its public sector statutory duties as detailed below. We understand that the duties apply to service delivery and employment and staff management as well as policy development and implementation.

General Duty under the Equality Act 2010:

The purpose of this policy is to set out how our practice and policies have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it
- Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

The Specific Duties of the Act enable schools to meet their obligations under the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED)

The specific duties require schools to:

- Publish annually information quantitative and qualitative, showing compliance with the public sector equality duty (PSED) set out in clause 149 of the Equality Act 2010.
- To set every four years one or more specific measurable equality objectives that further the aims of the equality duty.

Protected Characteristics

The Equality Act 2010 protects pupils from discrimination and harassment based on protected characteristics. The protected characteristics for school provisions are:

- age (for staff only)
- disability
- ethnicity and race
- gender (sex)
- gender identity and reassignment
- pregnancy, maternity and breast feeding
- religion and belief
- sexual orientation

Disability

At The Giles Nursery and Infants' School we implement accessibility plans, which are aimed at:

- increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the curriculum;
- improving the physical environment of schools to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of education, facilities and services provided;
- improving the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.

Community Cohesion

How we promote good relations and promote community cohesion:

Community Cohesion supports good practice in educating pupils/students about equality and diversity. It contributes to the school's efforts to provide a broad, balanced and creative curriculum. Our school fosters close relationships with members and representatives of the local faith communities reflecting the diversity within our school. We invite local members of the community to share their experiences of life and work with the children as part of topics. The children and staff feel happy to celebrate their own cultural events with their friends and teachers and also learn about others.

The school has close links with the junior school on site. Staff have had opportunities to share good practice. Opportunities to ensure smooth transition between year 2 and 3 are carefully planned.

The school has developed closer links with local schools particularly Woolenwick Infants' School, Letchmore Road Infants' School and Peartree Primary School. Teaching and support staff have been able to visit these partner schools to share good practice and develop their own skills in class teaching and subject leadership roles. The SENCo has benefitted from termly Cluster meetings with other SENCo's and professionals working within SEN. The SENCo also attends termly SEND briefings led by County and DSPL2 meetings led by the local area. These enable her to be up to date on national and local issues.

Much work has been done to develop high aspirations in the school and this also contributes to pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development. Through the modelling of mutual respect and promotion of strong moral values within the school community, the staff and governors are working hard to ensure learners receive consistent messages through all aspects of school life. Pupils are supported in the development of their sense of identity and belonging.

5: Engagement

Involving our learners, parents/carers and others

We have welcomed the participation and involvement of people from broad and diverse backgrounds and of different abilities in our annual consultation and self-evaluation activities. We consult and engage both with people affected by our decisions - parents, students, staff – and with people who have special knowledge which can inform the school's approach.

Evidence of this engagement will be included in the published material showing how the duty has been addressed.

6: Using information – Equality Impact Assessment, data and other information

Evaluating the impact in terms of the outcomes

Equality Impact Assessment (EQIAs)

EQIAs help us to ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination against certain individuals or groups and that the positive duties are promoted. It is a way to ensure we meet diverse needs of our pupils/students and staff and that diversity, equality and inclusion run through all areas of school life.
